

PROGRAM

▪ 8:45 – 9:15 : REGISTRATION

▪ 9:15 – 11:00 : PLENARY SESSION 1

Moderator: Guido Van Hal

Welcome address on behalf of the Belgian Association of Public Health (BAPH):
Prof Guido Van Hal (UA), President BAPH

Welcome address on behalf of the Province du Hainaut:
Dr Luc Berghmans, Director Observatoire de la Santé du Hainaut

Welcome address on behalf of the Université de Mons (UMons):
Prof Sven Saussez, Vice-dean UMons

Keynote lecture 1

“Networks in Public Health”:

Prof Mathieu Ouimet, Université Laval, Québec, Canada

Keynote lecture 2

“Thirty years Registration Network of Sentinel General Practitioners”:

Dr Viviane Van Casteren, Scientific Institute of Public Health, Brussels

▪ 11:00 - 11:25: BREAK

▪ 11:25 - 13:00: PARALLEL SESSIONS - PART 1

Parallel session 1: Health Information and Health Policy

Moderators: Willem Aelvoet, Christian Massot

- Creation of a Walloon Health Observatory (Billet A)
- Case-management by the GP of domestic violence: an example of the results from a sentinel network of general practitioners (Bossuyt N)
- Establishing a longitudinal health information system based on a network of health data providers and users (Ingenbleek A)
- Reinforcement of National Reference Centers for Human Microbiology in Belgium (Litzroth A)
- Superior Health Council: bridge between science and public health policy (Cauwerts K)
- European Science Advisory Network for health (Van Hoof E)

Parallel session 2: Health Promotion and Lifestyle

Moderators: Veerle Stevens, Chantal Vandoorne

- The general practitioner: a potential partner in a collaboration's network to build with the associations working in health promotion? (Couteau M-J)
- Energising an exchange network between trainers in health promotion in the long term (Giot C)
- Evaluating a Local and Regional Community of Practise on Healthy Living, Weight and Health (Royer A)
- Building a network for services of health promotion at school (services de Promotion de la santé à l'école-SPSE) of Hainaut- Belgium. When the evaluation gives a new boost to the network! (De Jonghe K)
- A multilevel framework to support long-term breastfeeding (Noirhomme-Renard F)

Parallel session 3: Mental Health and Environment

Moderators: Véronique Tellier, Johan Van der Heyden.

- Indicators on children's health and the environment for Europe: an update for Belgium (Brits E)
- A network on mental health and ageing. Practice of networking and health promotion (Houieux G)
- Is Brussels' mental health care delivery integrated? A study of the interorganisational network and focus on the "Plate-forme de concertation" (Lorant V)
- A case of institutionalization of local mental health networks: the Belgian therapeutic projects (Schoenaers F)
- Human biomonitoring of heavy metals in the vicinity of non-ferrous metals industries in Ath, Wallonia (Rebolledo J)
- Mental health and social services collaboration for socially marginalised people: a social network analysis of inter-organisational partnerships in Brussels (Nicaise P)

Workshop 1: Clinical pathways

Moderators: Xavier de Béthune

- D'un programme de formation à un Réseau ? Le cas du Réseau Itinéraires Cliniques (Chaidron N)
- Clinical pathway's methodology. Concrete use of the 30 activities' plan (Dierckx de Casterlé R)
- The network and its evolution: the perspective of a coordinator of clinical pathways (Stevens M)
- Prise en charge du patient coronarien depuis le cathétérisme cardiaque jusqu'à la revalidation après une intervention cardiaque (Vandamme AB)

- 13:00 - 14:00: BREAK AND POSTER SESSION

▪ 14:00 - 15:30: PARALLEL SESSIONS – PART 2

Parallel session 4: Health Programs

Moderators: Johan Bilsen, Catherine Lucet

- Deprived population in Hainaut: a network of health education for care professionals (Bizel P)
- Participating in the Walloon network of sustainable food: opportunities and stakes for Health Observatory of Hainaut (Demarteau M)
- Networking health care practitioners and occupational prevention services for early rehabilitation of low back pain workers (Mairiaux Ph)
- Evaluation of the implementation of the 10.000 steps whole-community project in Flanders (Van Acker R)
- The Consortium of Flemish breast cancer screening centres: networks can work (Van Hal G)

Parallel session 5: Child Health

Moderators: Ilse de Bourdeaudhuij

- Network organisation: the impact of dominant paradigms? (Absil G)
- Computerization of medical data of school-aged children in the French Speaking Community: results of an exploratory research (Decant P)
- School 21 network (Lorenzo Ph)
- Health promotion as a guideline for the 'GO!' school network of the Flemish Community (Moens O)
- Evaluating the impacts of a network on the practices relating to promoting good quality nutrition in schools (Vandoorne C)

Workshop 2: Developing a health information system (HIS) and a health information dissemination system (HIDS)

Moderators: Véronique Tellier, Johan van der Heyden

- The North East Public Health Observatory (NEPHO) and its place in the English health information system (Wilkinson J)
- The French Regional Health Observatories (ORS) and their Federation (Trugeon A)
- Health information system in Wallonia : a progressively structured network (Tellier V)

▪ 15:30 -16:15: PLENARY SESSION 2: ROUND TABLE AND CONCLUSIONS

Moderator: Tien N'Guyen

Xavier de Béthune, Alliance Nationale des Mutualités Chrétiennes, Coordination des Initiatives de Qualité

Mathieu Ouimet, Université Laval, Québec

John Wilkinson, North East Public Health Observatory (NEPHO)

▪ 16:15 : DRINK