Bem-vindo a Lisboa!

17th European Public Health Conference
12 – 15 November 2024
Lisbon Congress Centre, Lisbon, Portugal

WELCOME TO LISBON 2024

DISCOVER THE CHARMS OF LISBON

As the host city for the 2024 European Public Health Conference, Lisbon invites you to embark on a journey of exploration. Nestled along the captivating shores of the Atlantic Ocean, Lisbon is a city where history, culture, and innovation converge. With its charming streets, historic neighborhoods, and a vibrant arts scene, Lisbon offers an enchanting backdrop for next year's conference.

Sailing the Waves of European Public Health: Exploring a Sea of Innovation

This year's conference theme, "Sailing the Waves of European Public Health: Exploring a Sea of Innovation," encapsulates our collective mission. Just as explorers once set sail to discover new worlds, we, as public health professionals, embark on a journey of innovation and discovery in our field. We seek to push the boundaries, discover new approaches, and chart the course for the future of public health in Europe.

SUB-THEMES

AI in Public Health: Lisbon, a city that bridges tradition and modernity, is the ideal setting to delve into the cutting-edge realm of Artificial Intelligence (AI) in public health. We'll explore how AI is transforming disease surveillance, healthcare delivery, and decision-making, propelling us into an exciting era of health innovation.

One Health – Animal Approach:

Lisbon's deep maritime heritage resonates with the One Health concept, which recognizes the interconnectedness of human, animal, and environmental health. Against the backdrop of our historic port, we'll discuss how taking an animal-centric approach can strengthen public health strategies and mitigate emerging threats.

Social Marketing in Public Health:

Lisbon's vibrant street life and dynamic culture provide a unique backdrop to discuss the art of social marketing in public health. Join us in exploring innovative campaigns, digital strategies, and community engagement techniques to promote healthier behaviors.

Health Inequalities: The diverse neighborhoods of Lisbon's, each with its own character and challenges, serve as a reminder of the widespread health inequalities in Europe that persist across the continent. There will be a discussion on innovative strategies that can be employed to reduce disparities and ensure equitable access to health care.

Global Health: Lisbon's status as a global port city reminds us of the interconnectedness of our world in an increasingly globalized world. Together, we'll discuss how European public health efforts can contribute to global health solutions, addressing issues that transcend borders.

JOIN US!

In the heart of this beautiful city, the European Public Health Conference in Lisbon promises to be an unforgettable experience. Whether you're strolling through historic Alfama addressing the challenges of Global Health, discussing AI innovations while tasting a delicious "pastel de Belém", or debating strategies to combat health inequalities overlooking the Tagus River, you'll find inspiration in every corner of Lisbon. Set your calendars for this event and prepare yourself to embark on a voyage of innovation in the field of public health. Lisbon awaits your arrival, ready to welcome you to a conference that will surprise you and leave a lasting impression. See you in Lisbon!

LISBON

Welcome to Lisbon, the enchanting capital of Portugal, which has been chosen to host the 2024 EPH Conference. Nestled on the western coast of Europe, this vibrant city is the perfect blend of historical charm and modern innovation, making it an ideal location for exploring cutting-edge public health topics.

Lisbon is renowned for its picturesque landscape, rich cultural heritage, and friendly locals. The city's seven hills offer breathtaking views of the Tagus River, while its cobbled streets, adorned with colorful "azulejo" tiles, invite visitors to wander and discover hidden treasures at every turn. The EPH Conference will be held at the state-of-the-art Lisbon Congress Center, a venue that boasts excellent facilities and sustainable features. Located near the iconic 25 de Abril Bridge and the Belém Tower, the Congress Center offers easy access to the city's most famous landmarks and cultural institutions.

While attending the conference, delegates can enjoy Lisbon's diverse gastronomy, savoring fresh seafood, world-famous "pastéis de nata", and other local delicacies. With its mild climate and abundance of green spaces, Lisbon area is the perfect destination for outdoor activities such as exploring enchanting Sintra or taking a rejuvenating walk along the riverfront.

Join us in Lisbon for the 2024 EPH Conference to share knowledge, create meaningful connections, and experience the warmth and hospitality of this captivating European gem. Together, let us foster a healthier, more equitable future for all.

The EPH Conference is where over 2,000 public health professionals convene, learn, network and engage with colleagues to strengthen the profession of public health, share the latest research and information, promote best practices and advocate for public health issues and policies grounded in research. The EPH conference is an initiative of the European Public Health Association (EUPHA), an independent scientific organisation engaged to build capacity and knowledge in the field of public health.
